Affordable Learningmplementation(OER)Grant Fall 2022 Report Ann E. "Nancy" Cummings

Course: MGT 509Business PolicyONLINE

Background and DescriptionMGT 509 -Business Policy is the graduate capstone course for the Kania School of Management's MBA Program (traditional and online). As part of the new term alignment within the University's schedule, courses in the MBAProgram changed from an eighteek delivery model to seven weeks, necessitating the conversion, or in the case of MGT 509 online, full course redevelopment for the Fall 2022 H1 terthe online, mostly asynchronous course includes as its population, students who have several years professional business experience. I taught the redeveloped course for the first time in the Fall 2022 H1 term.

Full redevelopment of the course presented the opportunity change and Spring 2022, I applied for an OER grant with the intention of placing the textbook to limit the number of cases needed in HBSP cases pofour instead of six, which reduced both cost and reading load.

Student Engagment with OER Materials

With the guidance of University Librars vivia Orner and utilizing Google Forms, I conducted a survey of the students in my MGT 509 course at the end of the seventh/final weight of 13 students responded. When asketithey used the OER items, 62.5% stated that they used the resources complete assignments or when the need archeron asked if the resources where effective and appropriate for furthering theirunderstanding of topic content 100% of the students agree or strongly agreedWhen asked how much they valued not spending money on a traditional text, 87.5% of
